

THE MEDIA

ACROSS

5. to send out a programme on television or radio
7. the reporting of a particular important event or subject
9. Someone who writes regularly in a newspaper (named after the space that their articles take up)
11. The quality every journalist should have but finds it difficult to apply due to personal beliefs
12. Something that causes a lot of debate and argument because everyone feels differently about it
14. (Adj) Showing a political preference when reporting
15. A magazine that comes with the weekend papers

DOWN

1. Normal or conventional; what most people see or do, e.g. the media
2. The practice of examining books, films, articles etc. to remove anything that is considered offensive, morally harmful, or politically dangerous
3. photographers who follow famous people in order to take photographs they can sell to newspapers
4. the attention that someone or something gets from newspapers, television etc
6. a piece of writing in a newspaper about something that is happening, or part of a news programme
8. The person in charge overall in a newspaper.
10. a situation in which someone receives a lot of attention, especially from newspapers, television etc
12. someone who knows a lot about a particular subject, and who writes about it or discusses it on the television or radio. (political/sports)
13. the title of a newspaper report, printed in large letters above it