

Make two sentences into one using the comparative form of the adjective

1. Charlotte is angry. Sophie is very angry.
Sophie is angrier than Charlotte.
2. Jake is worried. Luke is very worried.

3. Amu is happy. Holly is very happy.

4. Max is confused. Ben is very confused.

5. Jack is relaxed. Harry is very relaxed.

6. Emma is intelligent. Isabelle is very intelligent.

7. Adam is bad at French. Charlie is very bad at French.
