LGEG
Образовательный центр

SUBJECT: HUMANITIES
TEACHER: MARGARITA
GROUP: E2
NAME:

_____

Read the text and answer the questions.

King Uther loved Igraine of Cornwall, but he couldn't marry her. A magician named Merlin said he would help Uther marry Igraine, but only if they gave him their first born son. Uther and Igraine were married. They had a son and named him Arthur.

Merlin took the baby and gave him to Sir Ector, where he was raised in the safety of the countryside with Sir Ector's own son, Kay.

Who did King Uther give Arthur to?

Excalibur Merlin Mordred Sir Lancelot

What was the condition for Merlin's help?

Uther had to give him his kingdom.

Uther had to give him his first born son.

Uther had to marry Igraine.

Uther had to give him a large sum of money.

Who raised Arthur?

Sir Ector

Merlin

Igraine

Kay

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Many years later, King Uther died. Then, a mysterious stone appeared outside St. Paul's Cathedral in London. Big sword was inside the stone with a message: whoever pull the sword out of the stone was the true High-King of the Britons.

Arthur was 15 years old. His brother Kay went to the tournament but forgot to bring Kay the sword. Arthur wanted to help. So he came to St Paul's Cathedral and saw the sword in the stone. He went up to the stone and pulled the sword out easily!

How did Arthur become the High-King of Britain?

He defeated Mordred in battle.

He was appointed by King Uther.

He pulled the sword out of the stone.

He was chosen by the Knights of the Round Table.

Arthur became the High-King of Britain. Merlin helped him rule. Merlin took Arthur to see the Lady of the Lake.The Lady of the Lake emerged from the water and gave Arthur a sword named 'Excalibur'. Arthur lived in a castle named Camelot. a large round table, which Arthur used to meet with his bravest and most trusted Knights. These Knights were known as 'Knights of the Round Table'.

What did the Lady of the Lake give Arthur?

A castle named Camelot.

A sword named Excalibur.

A round table.

A suit of armor.

Who were the 'Knights of the Round Table'?

Arthur's bravest and most trusted knights.

Mordred's army.

Merlin's assistants.

Sir Bedivere's soldiers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Once Arthur was away, Mordred (his evil nephew) proclaimed himself to be High-King. When Arthur heard of this, he returned to Britain with his army. The armies of Arthur and Mordred then fought an enormous battle.

At the end of the battle, only Arthur, Mordred and a few brave knights remained alive. They fought but Arthur killed Mordred with his sword Excalibur.

Unfortunately, Arthur himself was mortally wounded. He knew he would die very soon, so he gave Excalibur to his knight Sir Bedivere and told him to return it to the Lady in the Lake.

Sir Bedivere went to the lake and as he threw Excalibur in, he was astonished to see a hand emerge from the water to catch the sword.

Who proclaimed himself to be High-King when Arthur was away?

Sir Bedivere

Merlin

Mordred

Kay

What happened to Arthur at the end of the battle with Mordred?

He killed Mordred with Excalibur.

He was mortally wounded and

He became the new High-King.

He gave Excalibur to Sir Bedivere.

LIVEWORKSHEETS