LIVEWORKSHEETS

with 8,242 votes（票）, won first place in this survey because of the two reasons（理由）, "eat often" and "eat well". Different from other countries, Taiwan is famous for "Small eats". "Small eats" are delicious snacks on streets and not expensive（貴的）for people to enjoy. Taiwanese are lucky to have much delicious "small eats" from early morning to midnight. In each city, there are their own local（當地的）famous snacks. CNN also has a list（列表）of the 40 best Taiwanese foods and drinks.

The top ten dishes are braised pork rice, beef noodles, oyster omelet, bubble tea, milkfish, danzi noodles, pan-fried buns, gua bao, iron eggs, and pineapple cake. These dishes are common（普遍的）and popular（受歡迎的）when people are a little hungry and don't want to eat too much. For example, Gua bao, "the Taiwanese hamburger" is a steamed bun with a slice of pork belly inside with some pickled vegetables and fresh herb, cilantro, and peanut powder. It is a little salty, and sweet. People can have it anytime and can't stop to take only a bite.
