

Fact File

Born in: 17/ 18 / 19th century

Father's name: _____

Native City/ town: London /
Salzburg/ Vienna

Died in: London / Salzburg/
Vienna

Wife's name:

Weber

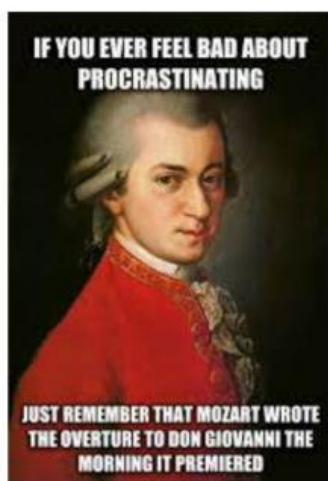

Number of symphonies: _____

Financial status: rich / well off /
poor

Complete the summary

Mozart was one of the greatest Romantic composers of the 18th century. Being a prodigy child, he was showed _____ by his father. It took him a while to get rid of his father's tight _____. Although he played at the courts of Europe, his financial affairs were a disaster and he lived hand _____ mouth at the end of his life. He constantly caught _____ and had no time to recover from them. He _____ a number of personal tragedies as he lost his mother and one of his kids. Many of his masterpieces are full of melancholy and sorrow. However, there are bright and elegant pieces. According to critics, he changed the _____ of music.

Complete the sentences with one of these words. There are 2 extra expressions.

consumed with grief; patron; last will; hit the road; catch chills; customary; chaperoned; around the corner; disaster; live hand to mouth; blindfolded; sabbatical; exhausted; recover

- 1 St Patrick is a _____ saint of Ireland
2. Our school building is cold. That's why we constantly _____.
3. My friend lives _____
4. _____, Jack. It's time to see the world
- 5 He was an experienced soldier and could put together a weapon _____
- 6 He felt _____ after 6 lessons
- 7 He had been working in IT for 10 years but he took a _____ from as he had to take care of his elderly mother
- 8 He was unemployed so he had to _____
- 9 As it was _____ in the 19th century, the young girl had to be _____ by a relative
- 10 In his _____ he left his property to his dog
- 11 He was _____ after his mother's death.