

Exam practice

1 Write a word in the gap to make a sentence with a similar meaning to the first.

- Only laugh at someone if they are laughing, too.
Don't laugh at someone they are laughing too.
- I hope the weather will be nice tomorrow. I want to go for a swim.
If the weather is nice I go for a swim.
- I haven't got any money. I would like a snack.
If I any money I would have a snack.
- Tia always does what the ballet teacher tells her to.
Tia is never with her ballet teacher.
- Stealing is against the law.
Stealing is a

2 Read the text and write the missing word in each gap.

Hill School near London is a school with no rules. Children from seven to seventeen don't have to go to lessons – they don't have to wash if they 1) want to, they can smoke, swear, and write graffiti on the walls, 2) the other children decide they shouldn't. There is no punishment, but the teachers sometimes shout 3) the children. They study all the normal subjects, but only 4) the subjects interest them. The teachers say they 5) lie on the floor to teach the children, if it helped them learn better. One mother said 'The kids from the school are so honest, and more mature 6) kids from other schools – it's 7) a great community!'. Government inspectors say parents have the right to send their children to any school, as long as the teaching is good 8) What do you think 9) this idea? Would you like to go to a school like this, if there 10) one near you?

3 Choose the correct answer A, B, C or D, to complete the sentences.

- Children must obey school rules even if they them.
A didn't agree at B don't agree for
C don't agree with D aren't agreeing with
- A lot of parents think there school rules nowadays.
A aren't enough B aren't enough of
C weren't enough D aren't so much
- Some rules seem really, but there is always a good reason for them.
A dislogical B logical
C illogical D unlogical
- If you don't understand why you have to do something, you an explanation.
A will ask for B could ask to
C asked for D should ask for
- If you ask politely, at the right time, your teacher the reason.
A would explain B will explain
C explained D explains
- In the past, rules very strict, but now they're not big problem for children.
A so B too
C enough D such a
- What happens in your school if you the rules?
A would disobey B will disobey
C disobeyed D disobey
- Do you think your teachers are ?
A not enough strict B not strict enough
C not such a strict D too not strict
- If you respect your teachers, you life is much easier for you.
A will find B found
C find D find
- What do you a school with no rules?
A think to B think for
C think of D think at
- Nowadays in the UK, hitting children is
A against the law B against law
C not for the law D against the laws
- It would be just allow everyone to do what they want at school.
A so confusing B too confusing to
C such confusing to D confusing enough