Main Idea and Supporting Details

Read the stories carefully. Write ONE supporting detail for each on the lines provided.

Ken had a birthday party on Sunday. The backyard was all pretty. Children played games. There was a lot of happy noise. They had food, drinks and cake. Everyone had a treat bag and balloon to take home.

The icecream truck is outside! It plays our favourite song. Kids go to the truck to buy. Chocolate icecream and popsicles are the best. I eat mine watching TV.

I like getting good grades. When I see an A or 100%, I feel happy. I do the work all by myself and it is right. Mom or dad check it then send me to fix it. My books are full of good grades. I cannot wait for my report card.

Deb has a Baby Alive. The doll looks at Deb when she talks to her. She makes baby noises and even moves. Baby Alive feels like a real baby. She wets her diaper! I want a Baby Alive too.
