Second Conditional

Let's revise the rule!

We use Second Conditional when talk about unreal condition and unreal result in present or near future.

If + Past Simple (Verb+ed / 2 form)	Would (could) + Verb
Condition	Result

Task A. Match and complete the sentences. Use Second Conditional.

1. If Tom ..... (do) the project,
2. If my cousins ..... (read) more,
3. If Tina ..... (speak) English better,
4. If my uncle ..... (go) fishing,
5. If Jane ..... (help) her Margaret,
6. If Peter ..... (book) tickets online,

a) she ..... (get) a job in Australia.
b) they ..... (decorate) the Assembly Hall by 10 am.
c) he ..... (get) a good mark.
d) my aunt ..... (be) proud of them.
e) he ..... (buy) them faster.
f) he ..... (take) his boat.

Task B. Complete the sentences. Use Second Conditional.

a) If Mr. Johnson ..... (arrive) at 8 pm, he ..... (meet) his old friend.
b) If Jim ..... (book) a ticket, he ..... (travel) by bus.
c) If Susan ..... (come) home earlier, she ..... (make) a pizza.
d) If Ann ..... (buy) some flour, she ..... (bake) biscuits.
e) If Tim ..... (clean) the living room, he ..... (watch) a film in the evening.
f) If Peter ..... (turn) on the radio, he ..... (read) the latest news.
g) If Liza ..... (paint) a picture of the field, her grandma ..... (be) glad.
h) If Tom ..... (get) a job in this company, he ..... (earn) more money.

LIVEWORKSHEETS