Unit
32

Reporting people's words and thoughts

A Quoting and reporting in our own words Reminder → G1–G11

When we report what people think or what they have said, we often give the information using our own words. We do this with sentences that have a reporting clause and a reported clause (see also Units 33–39):

reporting clause	reported clause
She explained	(that) she couldn't take the job until January.
He didn't tell me	where to put the boxes.

B If the exact words are important, we might report the actual words someone said. In writing this is done in a quotation:

☐ 'I suppose you've heard the latest news,' she said to me.
☐ 'Of course,' Carter replied, 'you'll have to pay him to do the job.'

The reporting clause can come before, within, or at the end of the quotation.

In the English used in stories and novels, the reporting verb (e.g. ask, continue) is often placed before the subject when the reporting clause comes after the quotation except when the subject is a pronoun:

☐ 'When will you be back?' asked Jimin. (or ... Jimin asked.)
☐ 'And after that I moved to Italy,' she continued. (not ... continued she.)

C Negatives in reporting

To report what somebody didn't say or think, we make the reporting verb negative:

- ☐ He didn't tell me how he would get to London.

If we want to report a negative sentence, then we usually report this in the reported clause:

- ☐ 'You're right, it isn't a good idea.' → He agreed that it wasn't a good idea.

although it may be reported in the reporting clause, depending on meaning:

- ☐ 'I disagree. It's not a good idea at all.' → He didn't agree that it was a good idea.

However, with some verbs, to report a negative sentence we usually make the verb in the reporting clause negative:

- ☐ 'I expect he won't come.' / 'I don't expect he will come.' → She didn't expect him to come.

Also: believe, feel, intend, plan, propose, suppose, think, want

D Reporting questions

To report a wh-question we use a reporting clause and a clause with a wh-word:

- ☐ She asked me what the problem was.
- ☐ I asked him where to go next.

When we report a yes / no question we use a reporting clause followed by a clause beginning with either if or whether (but note that we can't use if + to-infinitive; see Unit 34):

- ☐ Liz wanted to know if / whether we had any photos of our holiday.

The usual word order in a wh-, if-, or whether-clause is the one we would use in a statement:

- ☐ 'Have you seen Paul recently?' → She wanted to know if I had seen Paul recently.

However, if the original question begins what, which, or who followed by be + complement, we can put the complement before or after be in the report:

- ☐ 'Who was the winner?' → I asked who the winner was. (or ... who was the winner.)

Note that we don't use a form of do in the wh-, if-, or whether-clause:

- ☐ She asked me where I found it. (not ... where did I find it. / ... where I did find it.)

However, if we are reporting a negative question, we can use a negative form of do:

- ☐ He asked (me) why I didn't want anything to eat.

- B. Report what was said, quoting the speaker's exact words using one of the reporting verbs from the box. Put the reporting clause after the quotation and give alternative word orders where possible.

boast chorus ~~command~~ confess explain grumble suggest wonder

- 1 Come in out of the rain now. (her mother)
'Come in out of the rain now,' commanded her mother / her mother commanded.

2. Why don't we stop for a coffee? (she)

5. I always carry two umbrellas with me because I am always losing them. (Lena)
