

- 3  Listen again to part of the interview between Hassan and Mohammed.
Fill in the missing words.

Hassan:	Mohammed, could you tell our viewers about Al Janadriyah Festival?
Mohammed:	Certainly, Hassan. Well, the festival started in 1985 and takes place every year around February or March for two weeks. It was started as a way for _____ <sup>1</sup> to come together to celebrate our traditions and preserve them in this rapidly changing world. It's very important we do this, because I'm sure _____ <sup>2</sup> wants to see them disappear.
Hassan:	Would you mind telling us about the cultural traditions _____ <sup>3</sup> might see on display here?
Mohammed:	Not at all. Al Janadriyah is a major cultural event here in Saudi Arabia, and _____ <sup>4</sup> can come. We open the festival with a camel race each year, and _____ <sup>5</sup> can also see horse races and displays of falconry. These animals are significant to our cultural history and identity, so it's important to us that we celebrate them.
Hassan:	Mmm, mmm, and what about the handicrafts _____ <sup>6</sup> might see here at the festival?
Mohammed:	Well, we have many handicraft artisans who come to the festival. We like to think that the festival is a kind of 'cultural village' where _____ <sup>7</sup> can come and see these traditional crafts being made.
Hassan:	That's fantastic, Mohammed, thank you.
