Listening

Listen and fill in the blanks.

What have you been doing lately?

Vanessa

___ I have an _____ to work in _____ next year. I think it'll be an interesting experience, but it's going to be a _____ because I need to be able to speak the language. So, I've only been doing one thing lately – studying _____. It's a difficult job, so I haven't been going out at all. But that's OK. It'll be worth it.

___ At work, I've been designing a new app. It's not easy, but I'm getting there. I think it will be a big _____ as well as a personal _____ for me. It's not the only thing in my life, though. I'm on a _____ team, and we're doing really well. Soccer practice is a nice _____ after sitting in front of a computer all day. Now I just need to make time for family and friends!

___ I've been doing lots of things lately! I've been painting pictures of nature – that's a fun _____. I've also been learning to make _____. It's a long _____, but I'm getting better at it. And of course, I always have _____ like doing the dishes or the laundry. Yeah … it's a challenge to fit in everything I want to do. But that's what makes life interesting!
