

A PREPOSITION shows relationships between words. Read the sentence and write the preposition in the box below.

1. I heard about the new store.
2. The plane is flying above our heads.
3. Let's go across the street together.
4. I will see you after my nap.
5. You shouldn't swim against the current.
6. Bob cut carefully along the line.
7. Laura found peace amid the chaos.
8. I couldn't find you among the people.
9. The cupcake store is around the corner.
10. Please stop the car at the stop sign.
11. Karen placed the cherry atop the ice cream sundae.

A PREPOSITIONAL PHRASE begins with a preposition and ends with a noun or pronoun. In the sentences below, read the sentence and write out the full prepositional phrase.

1. I heard about the new store.
2. The plane is flying above our heads.
3. Let's go across the street together.
4. I will see you after my nap.
5. You shouldn't swim against the current.
6. Bob cut carefully along the line.
7. Laura found peace amid the chaos.
8. I couldn't find you among the people.
9. The cupcake store is around the corner.
10. Please stop the car at the stop sign.
11. Karen placed the cherry atop the ice cream sundae.