

Choose the right answer.

1. What do parents do to ensure their child's safety and well-being?
A) Laugh B) Nourish C) Discipline D) Paint
2. When children misbehave, responsible parents often use _____ as a form of teaching right from wrong.
A) Ignore B) Praise C) Punishment D) Dance
3. What action involves taking care of a baby's physical needs, like feeding and changing diapers?
A) Singing B) Cuddling C) Bonding D) Nurturing
4. When parents provide guidance, support, and love to help their child grow emotionally, they are said to be _____.
A) Entertaining B) Nourishing C) Ignoring D) Sculpting
5. What is the term for the process of teaching a child to pronounce words correctly and understand their meanings?
A) Scolding B) Reading C) Baking D) Tickling
6. Parents often _____ their children to develop good manners and behave appropriately in social settings.
A) Encourage B) Feed C) Tickle D) Shout
7. What do parents do when they help their child with homework and educational activities?
A) Play B) Watch TV C) Educate D) Sleep
8. When children have nightmares, parents often comfort them by _____ them and assuring them that everything is okay.
A) Ignoring B) Hugging C) Criticizing D) Cooking
9. Parents sometimes have to _____ their children when they're sick, providing medicine and care to help them get better.
A) Punish B) Spoil C) Nurture D) Shout
10. What is the term for the process of parents teaching their children the difference between right and wrong?
A) Singing B) Disciplining C) Tickling D) Sleeping