Dear Master Tours,

I saw your advertisement on the Internet and wanted to ask for your help in planning a week-long trip for my wife and me. Before we can do that, there are a few details we think you should know.

First of all, we don't like the cold weather. I guess that means we can't visit the beautiful snowy mountains of Switzerland. Secondly, my wife is allergic to strange plants and animals, so a trip to the Amazon isn't an option. Third of all, a trip to Thailand to the floating markets is not something I would like to do even though my wife loves markets. Another place I don't want to take her is Seoul, South Korea, because I heard that it's a shopper's paradise and I'm afraid to take my wife there.

My wife and I don't like to go to museums and old castles because we get bored. So we aren't interested in going to England, France, or Italy.

I get motion sickness on trains and buses, so we need to go somewhere by plane, but not somewhere too far because I can't sleep on planes and I can't stay awake on a long flight.

Lastly, we don't want to sleep in tents but we can't afford a fancy hotel either.

That's all!

We hope you really are the masters, as stated in your name, because no other tour agencies could find us a suitable trip.

Thank you,

Mr and Mrs Knowhere
