2.2 Past Simple: regular and irregular verbs

We use the Past Simple to talk about actions and situations that finished in the past. We often mention when these actions/situations happened.

\+ We saw a storm yesterday.
\- We didn't see the storm.
? Did you see the storm?

Some verbs in English have regular Past Simple forms. happen–happened, move–moved, study–studied, travel–travelled
