

Adjective clauses

I. Identify if the sentence has adjective clause (AC). If it doesn't have one, write NA

1. She is a talented singer in need of patronage. _____
2. I need a book that gives me good references about dog training. _____
3. They visited the city that never sleeps. _____
4. My cat likes to nap in the sun during the morning. _____
5. The movie that we watched last night was amazing. _____
6. My favorite restaurant, which I used to go very often, was closed. _____
7. The girl who is wearing the red dress won the contest. _____
8. That laptop belongs to my brother which he bought. _____
9. The teacher who helped me with math is Mrs. Johnson. _____
10. I spent two hours talking to Mr. Robinson who I met at the conference. _____

II. Match the sentence and the noun that the adjective clause makes reference to.

Column A (Sentences)	Column B (Nouns)
1. The book that I borrowed from the library got lost.	• A. The car
2. The woman whose purse was stolen didn't file a complaint.	• B. The movie
3. The student who won the scholarship didn't get into college.	• C. The teacher
4. The house where I used to live got burn.	• D. The dog
5. The restaurant that serves delicious pizza became very famous.	• E. The beach
6. The movie that we watched last night was too scary.	• F. The book
7. The dog that chased the mailman needs training.	• G. The restaurant
8. The beach where we had a picnic has been closed.	• H. The woman
9. The teacher whose class I enjoy attending got retired.	• I. The house
10. The car that needs a new paint job crashed into a wall.	• J. The student