

Insert the following sentences in the correct gap to complete the story.

- A) too shocked to move. They couldn't believe their eyes.
- B) a noise filled the tent. It sounded like a train.
- C) Eventually, they heard a sound of a car.
- D) 'It's out of the wind – let's camp here for the night'.

1- After several hours of hiking through the forest, two friends, Ali and Hamad, found a good place as shelter by trees on both sides. 'It looks like this used to be a river,' said Ali. Hamad nodded. _____

2- They put up their tent and went to sleep. While they were sleeping, they heard a loud sound. Moments later, _____ Ali tore open the entrance to the tent, 'Get out, get out!' he shouted to Hamad.

3- They crawled out of the tent as fast as they could and pulled themselves onto the higher ground. Seconds later, a huge wave of water crashed down the dry river and smashed the tent, throwing up mud and plants. They stood there, _____

4- _____ 'Are you kids all right?' the driver asked. 'I think so,' said Ali. The driver took them back home safely. They decided not to go to the forest again.