QUIZ: HOLIDAY & CLOTHES

Read the story and answer the questions

Today, at the beach, the sun is shining bright, and the waves are going splash-splash! I'm sitting under a colorful umbrella, and I see lots of people having fun.

Look, over there, some kids are making a huge sandcastle near the water. They're digging, building, and laughing a lot.

Next to them, there's a mommy and daddy sitting in comfy chairs. They're sipping drinks and staying safe from the sun with sunscreen.

Way out in the water, a surfer is riding on big waves, like a superhero on a surfboard.

Down the beach, some friends are playing a game with a ball in the sand. They jump and run to keep the ball up in the air. It's so much fun!

Near the snack stands, there's a person playing music on a guitar. A little crowd is clapping their hands and dancing to the music.

I can smell yummy hotdogs and burgers cooking. People are waiting in line to get tasty beach food.

And, by the tall chair, a lifeguard is watching to make sure everyone is safe. Sometimes, the lifeguard blows a whistle to tell someone to come closer to the shore.

The beach is full of excitement and fun today, with lots of things happening all at once!
