

Prepositions 3

In the sentences below, drag the prepositions into the box.

1. Tory is blonde like her mom.
2. We need to have a discussion concerning your grades.
3. Jenny dropped her keys down the vent opening.
4. The magician turned a scarf into a bird.
5. Becky turned off her phone during the performance.
6. Louise invited everyone except me.
7. Inside the house, Mom was making supper.
8. Glen traded his marbles for a baseball card.
9. Jack left his phone in his car.
10. Mandy received a letter from her best friend.