

MEET MY FAMILY

Charles

The diagram illustrates a family tree with three generations. The top generation consists of a male and a female. The middle generation shows their three children: a male (Charles) and two females. The bottom generation shows the children of Charles (two males) and the children of the two females (two males and one female).