

Reading Strategy

1. Read the following email

To: marissa@gmail.com
Subject: Loja's Art Festival.

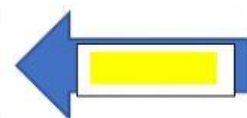

Hello Marissa,

I hope you're doing well. How is school going? These days I am visiting and enjoying the Capital of Ecuador, Quito. I'm having a great time in the Cultural city Loja. Actually, I'm writing email in the street.

Today, Quito's People are celebrating Independence Day. It usually takes place at the beginning of December. On this day, people don't go to work, they are working on line because of Corona Virus. They usually go to outside to watch the parade, eat a lot of typical food like "llapingachos", "chochos con cueritos". They're singing and playing traditional music. Some people are traveling in a truck called "chiva". They're singing and dancing.

Sorry, I have to go. Please say Hello to your brother and sister. I miss you very much.

Talk to you soon,
Ma. Lorena.

2. ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS

- Where is Ma. Lorena?
- What city is Lorena visiting?
- Where is Lorena writing the email?
- What are people doing right now?

3. MATCH THE EXPRESSIONS FROM THE READING TO FUNCTIONS.

EXPRESIONS

- Hello
- I hope you're doing well.
- How is School doing?
- Please say Hello to.....
- Talk to you soon.

FUNCTIONS

- Ask for general information.
- Send greetings to other people.
- Say good bye.
- Express your intentions.
- Greet your partner.