

Pg.24

1. There were no _____ [świadkowie] of the car crash.
2. Fox News is believed to be a bit _____ [stronniczy]
3. The CEO of Orlen and the PM _____ [zderzyli się] in the struggle for power.
4. After working for the company for 5 years, she decided to _____ [odejść] DO NOT USE THE WORD "LEAVE"
5. They had been dating for just a month before they decided to _____ [rozejść się]
6. The leaflet gave a good and _____ [dokładny] description of each landmark.

Pg. 25

1. Due to many shopping malls being closed, many _____ [kieszonkowcy] had to start working for UberEats.
2. It wasn't a serious car crash. It was just a _____ [drobny] bump. PLEASE DO NOT USE THE WORD "SMALL"
3. His wife _____ [nalegała na] going to Africa for their next holidays.
4. She had to _____ [zapłacić, wyłożyć] a lot of money for fixing her iPhone after breaking it. PLEASE, DO NOT USE THE WORD "BREAK"
5. Many people claim that _____ [swobody obywatelskie] are non-existent in China.
6. Luckily, he had a _____ [zapasowy] key. Otherwise, he wouldn't have got into his flat yesterday.