extensive - notably- abrupt - deceive - grief - rigid - inherently - novelty - praise - abandon - measure - considerable - severely - extensive - intense - basis - candidate - obtain - hesitate - response -

1. The _____ change in weather caught everyone by surprise, with temperatures plummeting overnight.
2. She decided to _____ her current job to pursue her passion for art.
3. The committee interviewed several _____s for the prestigious leadership position.
4. The _____ of his argument rested on sound scientific evidence.
5. His _____ grief over the loss of his beloved pet was evident to everyone who knew him.
6. In high-pressure situations, it's common for people to _____ and make impulsive decisions.
7. The research project involved an _____ review of thousands of scientific articles.
8. The actor's performance received _____ acclaim from both critics and audiences.
9. He couldn't help but _____ when asked about his involvement in the controversial project.
10. Trust is _____ a crucial component of any successful relationship.
11. The _____ competition among the athletes was evident as they pushed themselves to the limit.
12. To address climate change, we must take immediate and _____ actions.
13. The government implemented a new _____ to combat rising inflation.
14. The discovery of a new species in the rainforest was a scientific _____.
15. He worked tirelessly to _____ the necessary permits for the construction project.
16. The speaker received a standing ovation for her _____ presentation on artificial intelligence.
17. Her _____ to the criticism was calm and measured, demonstrating maturity.
18. The _____ rules of the organization left little room for flexibility.
19. The drought _____ affected the agricultural sector, leading to widespread crop failures.
20. Despite his charming exterior, he often used his charisma to _____ others for personal gain.

LIVEWORKSHEETS