

Listening Worksheet

Presented by
Tiarannisa Putri Lestari
22302020II04

EXERCISE 1

Listen to the audio attentively, read the questions and choose the correct answer.

1. Peatlands also known as _____

2. Peatlands are layers of _____

3. Peatlands decompose slowly, because _____

4. Because most of the peatland matters doesn't fully decompose, peatland _____

5. Carbon in peatland can be released naturally through _____

EXERCISE 2

Listen to the audio attentively, then fill in the blank based on the audio.

While air pollution has many consequences for our planet, there are _____. We can limit toxic _____, smog, and greenhouse _____, by decreasing the use of fossil fuels. Such as in transportation, _____, and electricity _____. Reducing air pollution, not only contributes to cleaner _____, and better human health, but can also slow _____ of global _____.

