borrow	regular	set	built
put	moored	rent	parked

Ahmad has been a fisherman for 20 years. Six years ago, he 1._____ up a fish farm on a floating raft or kelong about one kilometer from Punggol Point.

Business has been good from the start. Many people come to his farm to catch fish. They either go to his kelong or the small netted enclosures he 2. _____ beside it. Ahmad fills the enclosures with fish that he buys from fishermen.

People can select the kind of fish they want by casting their line and hook at the right spot in his enclosures. Visitors without fishing equipment can 3. _____ the equipment from Ahmad for a small hourly fee. He also charges for every fish caught. There are motorized boats 4. _____ at Punggol Point that ferry people to his farm.

Ahmad's 5. _____ customers go to his farm on most weekends and public holidays to buy fish. Some would ask him to whip up a dish of steamed fish in his simple kitchen.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

hateful	realized	army	follow
battle	felt	fighting	unstable

Saint Francis had returned home to Assisi after a long journey. He saw an 1. _____ from Perugia encamped outside the walls of Assisi. The two cities were going to war.

Unable to stop them, he made his way out of Assisi and sat on a hill. As he watched his people prepare for 2. _____ down below, he heard a nightingale singing sweetly. Saint Francis persuaded the bird to 3. _____ him to Assi to sing to its people.

In Assisi, the nightingale's melodious song touched the people's hearts and made them see how 4. _____ war was. They knew that war only resulted in death, violence and bloodshed. Saint Francis then asked the bird to sing to the soldiers of Perugia too. The soldiers were also enchanted by the nightingale's song.

The people of Assisi and the people of Perugia 5. _____ how foolish it was to go to battle and decided to make peace instead. Saint Francis was happy and relieved.

LIVEWORKSHEETS