THE VILLAGE LEGEND

In a small village, a mysterious legend is told. Every year, on a particular day, a grand celebration is held. The village square (decorated) with colorful banners, and the streets (lined) with eager villagers. The legend (pass down) from generation to generation.

The story (believe) to have originated centuries ago. It is said (say) that the village (found) by a group of settlers who (guide) by a wise elder. The settlement (choose) because of its abundant natural resources and the serenity of its surroundings.

As the years passed, the village (discover) by neighboring communities. It (admire) for its peaceful way of life and the harmonious relationships among its inhabitants. Visitors were welcomed (welcome) with open arms, and a sense of unity foster) among all who entered the village.

The legend (center) around a peculiar tree that is situated (situate) in the heart of the village. The tree (believe) to have been planted by the village's founders. Its branches (adorn) with shimmering lights during the annual celebration.

It (say) that this tree possesses magical properties. The legend tells of wishes and dreams that (fulfill) when whispered to the tree during the festival. Villagers and visitors alike (enchant) by the allure of the tree.

Each year, the celebration (anticipate) by all. The festivities (organize) with great care, and the tree is surrounded (surround) by people from all walks of life. Stories (share) about the wishes that (grant) in the past.

As the celebration draws to a close, the villagers (fill) with a sense of unity and hope. The legend (keep alive) by the collective memory of the village, and the magic of the tree (cherish) by all who have been touched by its mystique.

And so, the village and its legend continue to be celebrated year after year, and the spirit of unity and wonder (pass on) to future generations.

LIVEWORKSHEETS