

My almost perfect trip.

One year ago, I decided to quit my job and travel the world.

Day 1: Arriving at the airport to be _____ by taxi drivers was a little stressful. I was tired from my _____ and I wasn't _____ in dealing with this kind of intensity.

Thankfully, things _____ when I arrived at my hotel. The staff were friendly, and the hotel _____ fantastic. The food especially, was amazing!

Day 2: I _____ around the local area in the morning and _____ looking in the _____ local stores. I ate some of the famous street food that _____ about. It was so good that I _____ seconds.

Day 3: I _____ the evening at a bar that was popular with tourists, but I was _____. It was too expensive, and the music was _____.

Later, I _____ to a club to dance, but the music was _____. Unfortunately, the whole night was a _____.

Day 4: It was a _____ day. We _____ on a fishing boat with some local people and spent the day enjoying the sun, enjoying some good company, and catching a _____ amount of fish!

Later, I _____ the sun set over the ocean, which was one of the most beautiful things I have ever seen!
