

Unit 1 / Lesson 1

01 Complete the sentences with the verb in parentheses in the correct form. You can use the Present or Past Perfect in Simple or Continuous form.

1. Autism _____ (consider) a curse by many cultures for years. Fortunately, times changed, and we know it's not.
2. Han _____ (live) in a home for people with learning disabilities until he met his brother.
3. Almost no other autistic character _____ (appear) on the big screen before Rain Man.
4. We _____ (plan) the opening ceremony of the new center of disabilities for a week, but it was canceled.
5. 'I'm sorry I'm late _____ you _____ (wait) long?' 'No worries, I haven't.'
6. Tamara _____ (not/take) online courses before COVID-19 started. She had to learn how to do it.

02 Read the situations and make sentences using the prompts in parentheses. You can use the Present or Past Perfect in Simple or Continuous form.

1. Hector was sleeping on the sofa when I got home.
(he/watch TV)
2. Renata is very tired after such hard work.
(she/finally/finish/a long session/speech therapy)
3. Ed couldn't sing the song. He didn't know it.
(he/not/hear/before)
4. He finally got the job post he wanted.
(he/work/assistant/years)
5. Frank still teaches at that institute.
(he/use/wheelchair ramp/accident/last year)

03 Use the timetable to complete the sentences about David's day. You can use the Future Continuous or Future Perfect Continuous.

David's Day

7 a.m.	Physical therapy	4–5 p.m.	Nap
10–11 a.m.	School	8–10 p.m.	Movies
1 p.m.	Lunch	11 p.m.	Bedtime

1. He _____ to his physical therapy session by 8 a.m.
2. He _____ school at 10:30 a.m.
3. He _____ lunch by 2 p.m.
4. He _____ a nap from 4–5 p.m.
5. He _____ a movie at 9 p.m.
6. He _____ to bed by 11 p.m.

04 Read the sentences and underline the correct option. Sometimes both options are possible.

1. Don't text me between 3 and 5. I will be eating / have eaten then.
2. By this time tomorrow, the class will be over and the teacher will be telling / will have told us how we did in the exam.
3. By next semester, Congress will be passing / will have passed the law which enables women to earn the same as men.
4. The course lasts a month starting today. We will be having / will have had lessons for the following four weeks.
5. I'm pretty sure that by 2030 the number of digitally illiterate people will be reducing / will have reduced considerably.

- Can recall and use Present and Past Perfect structures (Simple and Continuous)
- Can recall and use Future structures (Continuous and Perfect) in different contexts