Are you tired or are you tiring?

ADJECTIVES ENDING IN -ED AND -ING

PLEASE NOTICE: Somebody is –ed if something (or somebody else) is –ing. If something is –ing, it makes you –ed.

Form correct adjectives from the verbs below.

1. Paul has studied for three hours. He is really ----------. — 1. tire
2. That game is very ----------. I think I'll stop. — 2. tire
3. I was very ---------- with your attitude. — 3. disappoint
4. David is ---------- with his new bike. — 4. delight
5. Little Bob was ---------- when he saw the spider. — 5. terrify
6. Sara has made ---------- progress in her career. — 6. amaze
7. Your offer is very ---------- but I must say no. — 7. tempt
8. If I am not ---------- here, I'll go. — 8. welcome
9. Peter gave a ---------- hug when I returned from hospital. — 9. warm
10. What you said is extremely ----------! — 10. insult
11. I'm very ---------- with the idea of visiting Paris. — 11. excite
12. This has been the most ---------- moment of my life! — 12. humiliate
13. Jim is particularly ---------- in contemporary art. — 13. interest
14. The film was ----------. I couldn't sleep afterwards. — 14. terrify
15. Do you easily get ----------? — 15. embarrass
16. I have been given a very ---------- task! — 16. challenge
17. Today has been a terribly ---------- day for me. — 17. exhaust
18. Children feel ---------- when they are contradicted. — 18. frustrate
19. Rainy days make me ----------. — 19. depress
20. The last book I read was rather ----------. — 20. bore
21. Peter tells ---------- stories. — 21. amuse
22. People were ---------- that he got married so young. — 22. surprise
23. Thunderstorms make me ----------. — 23. scare
24. Tom was ---------- by David's reaction. — 24. puzzle
25. They have received ---------- news today. — 25. relieve
26. It's ---------- that we missed the bus again. — 26. annoy
27. Sophie felt an ---------- desire to kiss him. — 27. overwhelm
28. We were all ---------- when we heard the news about Japan. — 28. shock
29. The teacher was very ---------- with the test results. — 29. displease
30. I love ---------- films. — 30. inspire
31. Mathematics is extremely ----------. — 31. challenge

LIVEWORKSHEETS