

 Too Many, Too Much, and Very

Too many and too much are quantifying expressions. We use them when we talk about quantities. We use too many for countable nouns and too much for uncountable nouns. We use one of these expressions when there is more than enough of something.

She makes too much noise.

There are too many apples in the basket.

He spends too much time in front of the TV.

There are too many cars on the street.

When we want to emphasize something, we use very. We use very with adjectives.

It is very cold outside.

The box is very heavy.

A. Look at the pictures and write too many or too much.

1.

He eats too much ice cream.

2.

They have _____ balls to play with.

3.

It takes _____ time to get the tickets.

B. Write too many or too much.1. too much money

2. _____ books

3. _____ noise

4. _____ food

5. _____ people

6. _____ shoes

C. Write the words in order.

1. weather / ~~The~~ / very / is / cold / .→ The

2. She / . / nice / is / very

→ _____

3. coffee / The / is / hot / . / very

→ _____