A talented young artist

Andrew is sixteen. He's still a secondary school student, but he's a successful artist too. He likes to paint pictures of the countryside near his home. He has sold some of his paintings, and he has given one of them to the art gallery in his town.

"Art is my favourite subject at school," he says. "I've always loved it." He's learnt a lot from his mum – she's a university professor, and she teaches art. "When I was five years old, I could draw quite well. My ambition is to become an art teacher, like my mum."

Andrew has never travelled outside the UK, but next month he's going to Italy. He's very keen on Italian artists like Leonardo da Vinci. "I'm excited about my holiday," he says. "I'm having Italian lessons. I think I'll enjoy the holiday more if I learn a few words of Italian!"

1 What has Andrew given to his local art gallery?

2 How long has Andrew liked art?

3 Where does Andrew's mum work?
