

WORKING ALONE IN THE LAB?

Watch the video and answer the following questions:

1. According to the text, why is working alone in a lab potentially unsafe?

- a) Because it's against lab regulations.
- b) Because it's lonely.
- c) Because rare events can be more severe when you're alone.
- d) Because it's harder to focus.

2. What analogy does the text use to describe working alone in a lab?

- a) Going to a party by yourself.
- b) Going on a hike by yourself.
- c) Watching a movie by yourself.
- d) Cooking dinner by yourself.

3. According to the text, why is having a responsible lab partner important?

- a) Because they can help you with paperwork.
- b) Because they can make your work more efficient.
- c) Because they can assist in times of danger and call for help.
- d) Because they can take over your work when you're tired.

4. What does the text suggest about lab partners in terms of safety?

- a) They should always be someone from down the hall.
- b) They should be competent and willing to use safety equipment.
- c) They should only be present in case of serious hazards.
- d) They should be responsible for all paperwork.

5. What is the main message or advice given in the text?

- a) Working alone in a lab is always safe.
- b) Don't work alone in a lab, and choose a responsible partner.
- c) Document your lab work for safety reasons.
- d) Lab partners are essential for socializing.