

What you get when sales are higher than production costs	Money borrowed from a person or bank
A document that shows you've paid for something	The result when costs are higher than total sales
The money you get back when you are not satisfied with a product	A business that sells products to the general public
Everything a company or person owns that is worth money	The money that you earn from your job
The money needed to start a business	A person who has bought parts or shares of a company
The people that buy products and services	Money that people or companies have to pay to their government
A reduction in price	The total sales of a company
Money spent on goods or services	A business that sells goods in large quantities to retail stores
The money a bank charges for a loan	The money a country uses
A bill listing the products delivered	Money that a company owes