

Grammar Basics: Object Pronouns

A pronoun is a substitute for a noun. An object pronoun is the object of the sentence.

EXAMPLE: Melinda put the flowers in a vase.
Melinda put them in a vase.

Select an object pronoun that could take the place of the object in each sentence.

him	her	them	it	us	me
-----	-----	------	----	----	----

- _____ I bought a gift for Jaden and Jessie.
- _____ Mrs. Osawa gave me an A on the test.
- _____ Jody made a cake for Daniel.
- _____ There's enough candy for you and me.
- _____ Sylvie brought the trash can to the curb.
- _____ I really like the new clothes I got.
- _____ Byron went to the store with my brother and me.
- _____ I need to take my dog Scrounger for her walk.
- _____ We threw a surprise party for Timothy.
- _____ Give your empty plates to Jenny and Suzanna.

