

Read the sentences from episode one of the show we're watching.
Decide if the marked activity refers to the Present (PR), Past (P) to Future (F)

1. I've been so looking forward to this
2. We're getting better with age.
3. I've been wondering the same thing.
4. I'm feeling like the last 40 years have been a fraud
5. They're getting married. They want to make the most of their remaining years
6. You're always talking about door closing or window closing or opening or something
7. I'm just trying to keep my coffee down
8. I mean I'm assuming
9. What are you doing here?
10. I'm having a bite in a noisy place
11. I was judging by my experience of you
12. I've been bonking my law partner for 20 years
13. I'm feeling extremely guilty

Look at the sentences above and decide if the following statements are true (T) or false (F)

1. Progressive (Continuous) tenses are formed with the verb to be and participle I (V-ing)
2. We use Present Progressive only for actions that are happening right now
3. Progressive tenses refer to lasting actions
4. We never use Present Progressive with always

Read the remark from the episode and put in the prepositions.

I was judging my experience you, not the real you. That was wrong me.

We can use the present continuous with adverbs such as always, constantly, continually or forever to emphasise that something is done so often that it is characteristic of a person, group or thing:

- ☐ a: I think I'll stay here after all. b: You're constantly changing your mind.
- ☐ Jacob is a really kind person. He's always offering to help me with my work.

We often use this pattern to indicate disapproval. The past continuous is used in a similar way with these adverbs (e.g. Was Olivia always asking you for money, too?).

We can use the present continuous to describe something we regularly do at a certain time:

- ☐ At eight o'clock I'm usually driving to work, so phone me on my mobile.
- ☐ Seven o'clock is a bit early. We're generally eating then.

Fill in the gaps with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Then read out loud.

Present Continuous:

- I a thing about the psychic's abilities. (to wonder)
- She with her anger issues by attending anger management classes. (to deal)
- They the most of their remaining years by traveling the world. (to make)

Past Continuous:

- Last night, I to keep my coffee down while watching a horror movie. (to try)
- When I met the psychic, I by experience and was skeptical of her predictions. (to judge)
- He feelings with his harsh words during the argument. (to hurt)

Present Perfect Continuous:

- I guilty about not calling my friend for months. (to feel)
- She a lot of stress lately due to her heavy workload. (to experience)
- We the most of our time together by learning a new hobby. (to make)

Future Continuous:

- Tomorrow at this time, I a psychic reading to gain insight into my future. (to have)
- He with a challenging situation at work next week. (to deal)
- By this time next year, they the most of their remaining years by retiring. (to make)