The coffee story

Group 1

Kaldi was tired, but he couldn't sleep. His goats were active and very noisy. "Why can't they sleep?" Kaldi thought. He couldn't understand the problem so he watched the animals carefully. They were eating some green plants with little red fruit on them. The shepherd wanted to taste the fruit. He ate the soft part of each fruit and the hard things in the centre. After a minute he began to feel energetic. He was not tired any more and didn't want to sleep.
