

Definite, indefinite articles, or no articles

Complete the sentences with the, a/an, or no article (-)

What does your mother do? - She is rugby player. a

1. Gary has part-time job. He works three mornings week.
2. It's beautiful day. Let's have lunch in garden.
3. Louis has French name, but in fact, he is English, not French.
4. How often do you go to cinema?
5. Did Superman get job he had applied for?
6. I took taxi to station.
7. Our train leaves from Platform 5.
8. Have you got these shoes in size 48?
9. Can you turn off television, please? I get upset watching the news...
10. Are these test answers same??? - No, we would never copy each other's answers. No way!
11. We had very nice lunch at Jamie's last week.
12. Mum! What time is dinner? I could eat horse...
13. It's time to go to bed now.
14. What time do you usually finish work? - At 5. Then I take bus home.
15. Jane is at hospital visiting Tarzan. He was taken to hospital after NYE party.
16. son of preacher man goes to church at least twice week.
17. I'm dreaming of having house by sea.
18. Merchants were sea most of time – their wives had to manage on their own.
19. Do you like classical music? - Not really. I prefer Chinese food.
20. "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and pursuit of Happiness."
21. children learn from playing and imitation.
22. I like working with people who are creative and open-minded.
23. She likes people she works with.
24. Do you like coffee black or white?
25. Did you like coffee we had at Frei's Café last year?
26. British people are said to never know what tomorrow's weather will be like.
27. government should provide more money to help homeless and poor.
28. poverty is a major problem now at time of pandemic.
29. Do you think rich should pay higher taxes?
30. French are famous for their food, including their bakery products.