When I _____ (to be) six years old,
I _____ (to break) my leg
I _____ (to run) from my brother and his friends And _____ (to taste) the sweet perfume of the mountain grass as I rolled (to roll) down

I _____ (to be) younger then, take me back to when I _____ (to find) my heart and _____ (to break) it here
_____ (to make) friends and _____ (to lose) them through the years
And I _____ (to see) the roaring fields in so long
I know I _____ (to grow), but I can't wait to go home

Chorus

I _____ (to be) on my way
Driving at 90 down those country lanes
Singing to Tiny Dancer And I _____ (to miss) the way you _____ (to make) me feel, and _____ (to be) real When we _____ (to watch) the sunset over the castle on the hill

Fifteen years old and smoking hand-rolled cigarettes
Running from the law through the backfields and Getting drunk with my friends _____ (to have) my first kiss on a Friday night
I _____ (not reckon) that I _____ (to do) it right, but I was younger then, take me back to when We _____ (to find) weekend jobs, when we _____ (to get) paid We'd buy cheap spirits and drink them straight Me and my friends _____

(not throw up) in so long Oh, how we _____ (to grow), but I can't wait to go home

Chorus

One friend _____ (to leave) to sell clothes
One _____ (to work) down by the coast
One _____ (to have) two kids, but _____ (to live) alone
One's brother _____ (to overdose)
One's already on his second wife One's just barely getting by, but These people _____ (to raise) me
And I can't wait to go home

And I'm on my way
I still _____ (to remember) these old country lanes
When we _____ (not know) the answers
And I miss the way you make me feel, and it's real When we watched the sunset over the castle on the hill (hill)
Over the castle on the hill (hill)
Over the castle on the hill
