

Asking for and giving updates

Choose the correct option to complete the team meeting.

- A: Thanks for coming both of you. It's good to catch up. How are we 1_____ with the Dutch project, Marco?
- M: Well, George is working full-time on another project this week and Charlie is really finding it hard. We expect to be trying out the prototype next week. What's 2_____ with Giulia's transfer?
- A: Good news. She can start next week on a part-time basis and go full-time from the week after. What's the 3_____ on the schedule?
- M: We are OK to meet the deadline but everyone is working extra hours.
- S: Same here! 4_____ are we with Charlie's situation? Is he moving to my team?
- A: Yes, next week. Sylvia, can you give me a(n) 5_____ on the testing phase?
- S: Yes, my plan is to 6_____ creating the new schedule later today and confirm that we can test from June 1st to 6th. It's tight but it fits in with the new deadline. The only 7_____ I see now is staffing. But it's always like that, isn't it?
- A: It is. Thanks for the updates. I'll 8_____ up on the staff requests later.
