Listening

1. Listen to four people talking about their friends. Match the speakers (A–D) with the comments (1–4).

Speaker A Speaker B Speaker C Speaker D

1 I got to know my best friend through sport.
2 I haven't always been nice to my best friend.
3 My friends and I have similar interests.
4 My best friend is a lot older than I am.

2. Listen again and choose the best answers, A, B or C.

1 Where did Speaker A meet her best friend?
- A at primary school
- B at a playgroup
- C in the park

2 Which of these statements is true for Speaker A?
- A She used to be nasty to her friend, but now they get on well.
- B She used to be nasty to her friend, but now they can't live without each other.
- C She used to be nasty to her friend, but now they see each other occasionally.

3 Which of these statements is true for Speaker B?
- A He used to play football with his best friend at school, but he doesn't anymore.
- B He used to play football with his best friend at college, but he doesn't anymore.
- C He plays football with his best friend every Thursday.

4 What does Speaker C say about her mother?
- A She talks to her a lot.
- B She tells her what to do.
- C She listens to her.

5 Which of these statements is true for Speaker C?
- A She's an only child.
- B She has one sister.
- C She has brothers.

6 Speaker D says that it's important for his friends to
- A be in the same class as him.
- B be cheerful and happy.
- C play for the same sports team.

FRIENDS FOR LIFE

LIVEWORKSHEETS