

FORM 9. Unit 2. INTERPERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS. Lesson 1

I. Translate into English.

- столкнуться с проблемами
- напоминать
- выявлять, выводить на поверхность
- рассчитывать на (кого-либо)
- поддерживать
- крутиться и вертеться

II. Match the phrasal verbs in the box with their meanings.

- think about something that happened in the past;
- think or talk too long about something, especially something unpleasant;
- think about or plan what will happen in the future;
- support someone, prevent them from falling down;
- leave suddenly, especially because you think someone's behaviour is wrong;
- disappoint someone, not to do something that someone expects you to do;

III. Choose the right option to complete the sentences.

1. When I'm tossing and turning / getting in someone's way / facing problems, my friends are always there to help me.
2. Let go! / Hold up! / Look back! You're hurting me!
3. You reminded / counted on / were supposed to finish the project by Monday, but you're still working on it.
4. They never faced problems / got in his way / tossed and turned when he was angry. He got violent easily.
5. Could you bring out / remind me / let me go of her name, please. I keep forgetting it.
6. For Jenny, Forrest was a shoulder to count on / to cry on / to hold up.

IV. Use the correct forms of the phrasal verbs.

1. At the age of 80 he often _____ at his life and saw the mistakes he had made.
2. You'd better not _____ on this incident so long. It will give you insomnia (бессонница) if you do.
3. Such situations usually _____ either the best or the worst in people.
4. Enjoy the moment, my friend, but always _____, as you won't have any future if you don't plan it.
5. Those events _____ in history, and if not for archeologists and historians, we would never have learnt about them.
6. I was _____ on his support, but he never offered me any.
7. High columns _____ the roof of this Egyptian temple.

V. Fill in the missing words.

1. How do you think friends are _____ to behave?
2. Who is _____ for you when you are sad?
3. Has your friend ever walked _____ on you?
4. Do you often _____ on something, looking _____, and tossing and turning in your bed?
5. Who is your _____ to cry on?