

MY HAIR - The Maine

My hair is tired and it's falling out
 But before it all does I think I will let it down
 I'll grow it out like it's the 60s, man
 Because I feel _____ enough and just because I can

_____ your hair out, let your hair down while you still can
 Because it'll fall out, you'll go _____ like an _____ man
Put the top down, let your _____ blow around
 Driving through town without a care
 Grow it to the ground, let it all down everywhere
 _____ out your hair

The other morning as I rolled on out
Of my bed I got tripped up by something on the ground
 My _____ had down all the way to the floor
 I kinda like the way it looks
 I'll grow it out some more

(chorus)

Nobody's gonna tell me how to wear my _____
 Not my momma or a big wig millionaire
 I'll let it all down anywhere
 I'll let it all down everywhere
 See I don't care if you all care

It's on my head and it's not your hair

(chorus)

_____ out your hair

Nobody's gonna tell me how to wear my _____

(Nobody's gonna tell me how to wear my _____)

Nobody's gonna tell me how to wear my _____

(Gotta cut loose!)

Nobody's gonna tell me how to wear my _____

(Let it all down)

Nobody's gonna tell me how to wear my _____

(_____ out your hair!)

Missing words

Bald      Old      Young      Curls

Hair (6x)      Locks      Grow (4x)

Now write the expressions in bold on the lyrics under the correct definition:

1. A person who has an important or powerful position:

_____

2. To lower or remove the roof of a convertible car. It allows the sun to shine on the passengers and the wind to blow through their hair. People do that when they want to feel "free" and relaxed. It can be used metaphorically too:

---

3. To fall because you hit your foot on something, or to make someone fall by putting your foot in front of the other person's foot:

---

4. To allow yourself to behave much more freely than usual and enjoy yourself. This expression alludes to the practice of women taking down their pinned-up long hair only in the privacy of the bedroom:

---

5. To behave in an uncontrolled, wild way:

---

6. To rise after sleeping in a bed and especially after sleeping later than usual:
