

Practice test

English 10

Choose the correct form of verbs (will or be going to) to fill in the blanks.

1. A: Why are you holding a piece of paper?

B: I (write) a letter to my friends back home in Texas.

A. am going to write

B. will write

2. Ted: It is so hot in here!

Sarah: I (turn) the air-conditioner on.

A. are going to turn

B. will turn

3. I think he (be) the next President of the United States.

A. going to be

B. will be

Choose the best option to complete the following sentences.

4. There is a warning sign near the edge of that river. It says that the water

A. may be polluted

B. may pollute

5. A face mask whenever we go out of the house during the pandemic to protect our health.

A. must be worn

B. must wear

6. She has been treating you so badly while none of it was your fault. You deserve better. She..... a second chance.

A. should give

B. should be given

7. Faulty products to us within 30 days in exchange for a new one.

A. should return

B. should be returned

Rewrite the sentences in passive forms.

8. She has to wash the towels every two weeks.

The towelsevery two weeks.

9. We might cancel our trip due to bad weather.

Our tripdue to bad weather.

10. We shouldn't buy that used car because it looks so old and rusty.

That used carbecause it looks so old and rusty.

-The end-