It's Monday morning. Dan and Greta are going to school.

Greg: Were you at home at the weekend?

Dan: No, I wasn't. Saturday was a busy day. I had a camping trip with Mr. Jordan.

Greg: Your biology teacher?

Dan: Yes. He took us outside the town.

Greg: Did you get there by bikes?

Dan: No, we didn't. We went there by school bus. Mr. Jordan was very attentive. He said us fasten our seat belts and not to stick our heads and hands out of the windows.

Greg: Did you leave early in the morning?

Dan: We left at 8 o'clock and arrived at 9.30. We enjoyed the nature in the campsite. I saw unusual bugs, nice bushes and beautiful flowers.

Greg: Bugs... Yuck

Dan: They were exciting!

Greg: Did you have any treasure hunt?

Dan: No, not that day. We had lots of other things. We set up tents, started a campfire and barbecued our food.

Greg: Wow! That sounds like a lot of fun!

Dan: Yes, it was!
