

Name:
Class: 4.....
Date:

REVISION FOR MID-TERM TEST

REVIEW UNIT 11

1 Read and write U/C.

U= uncountable noun

C= countable noun

penguin	ice	wing	krill
continent	snow	fur	feather
sunlight	milk	skier	juice
cookie	whale	crack	layer
octopus	seal	sugar	water

2 Complete the sentences with is/isn't/are/aren't.

- There some oil in the bottle.
- There any cereal in the box.
- There a lot of skiers in winters.
- There four bars of soap.
- There some honey in the jar.
- There some rain in the spring.
- There any pieces of bread.
- There some sugar in the bag.
- There two jars of jam.
- There a penguin on the ice.

3 Put the adjectives in order to complete the sentences.

(gray, Antarctic, big)

- There is a leopard seal.

(tiny, Antarctic, long, orange)

- Killer whales eat a lot of krill.

(brown, long, beautiful)

- It's cold today. I'm wearing a coat.

(Northern, big, white, cute)

- There are a lot of polar bears in the snow.

(green, Amazon, long, dangerous)

- There are many snakes in the jungle.

(colorful, long, American)

- My father gave me a scarf on my birthday.