

Prepositions

1. I need your support. Will you back me up for
2. You know you can count with on me.
3. Contrary for to what is written about us in at the press, I must assure you that we've done nothing to be ashamed with of
4. He is allergic for to pollen.
5. Every year at in spring, he suffers at from terrible burning in his eyes.
6. According to with the Prime Minister, increase at in the number of people dissatisfied with from the recent economic situation has resulted from in the mistakes the ruling party have made.
7. The Johnsons take great pride on in their son's achievements.
8. George is famous of for his scientific publications.
9. There is no point in at asking on for my opinion. I'm not familiar at with the recent political events in South Africa.
10. David prefers walking in the mountains from to lying on the beach.
11. To avoid getting into at trouble, young people should be taught to beware of for drug dealers.
12. The man claimed he had nothing to do with in the robbery. He was there by over accident.
13. I could do after without coffee. I'm not addicted of to it.
14. Before researchers find a cure for on cancer, thousands of people will have died of at it.
15. Owing by to Rosy's thorough education and good knowledge in of foreign languages, she has been accepted for all the jobs she has applied for to 16. Who have you been introduced with to so far?
17. He is at in charge of the sales department.
18. He is so proud for of his children's achievements in at school.
19. Write up down your address, please. I don't have memory on for numbers.