

Hi Make!

Collocations With Make or Do

OOPS!
Do again!

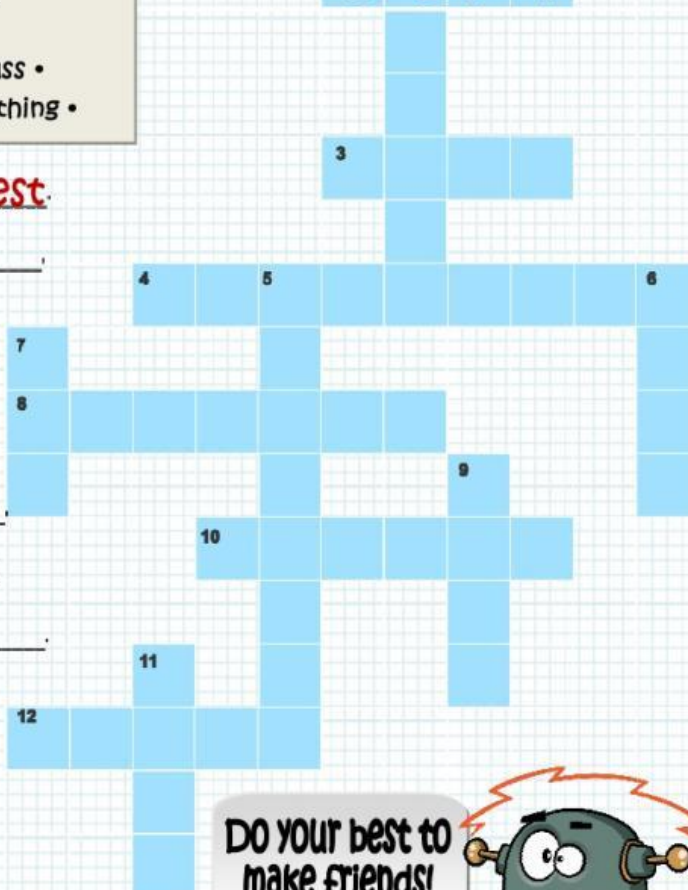

1. Solve the clues and complete the crossword.

Use the following words:

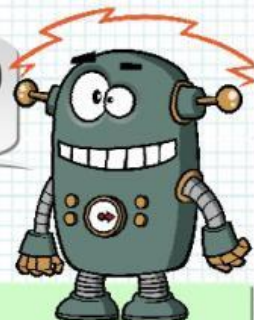

- bed • ~~best~~ • effort • excuses • favour • fuss •
- good • harm • mistakes • most • plans • something •

- It's not important if you win or lose, just do you best.
- You won't succeed in life if you don't make an _____.
- You need to make the _____ of this opportunity.
- He's very active. He's always doing _____.
- We all make _____ sometimes.
- Taking exercise every day will do you _____.
- Don't forget to make your _____ every morning.
- It was my fault. I'm not going to make any _____.
- He made a real _____ when I arrived late.
- "Can you do me a _____?" "Yes, of course."
- A cold shower in the morning won't do any _____.
- I need to make some _____ for the summer.

1 B 2 E S T

DO your best to make friends!

2. Read the text. Choose make or do in each case.

Just ¹ make / do it!

Want to have a better life? Then you'll need to get proactive! Proactive people enjoy life more. They take the initiative, are always ² making / doing plans and ³ make / do the most of every situation. They also accept full responsibility for their actions and don't ⁴ make / do excuses. They sometimes ⁵ make / do mistakes but this is inevitable, as they are always ⁶ making / doing lots of new things. However, when something goes wrong they don't ⁷ make / do a fuss and they ⁸ make / do an effort to solve the problem. Proactive people are also really good to have as friends, because they will always ⁹ make / do their best to help you. So ¹⁰ make / do yourself a favour: get more proactive! It certainly won't ¹¹ make / do you any harm.

LIFE IS:
WHAT HAPPENS
TO ME
WHAT I MAKE HAPPEN

