MY OWN VIKING HOUSE

In a small city, Mariana, a famous architect, <sup>1</sup> wanted (want) to build a Viking house.
So, she <sup>2</sup> _____ (start) to get timber from the forest. She <sup>3</sup> _____ (not have) fun, but she <sup>4</sup> _____ (feel) happy. However, there were problems. Sometimes, she <sup>5</sup> _____ (not have) enough timber, and the weather <sup>6</sup> _____ (cause) trouble. The architect <sup>7</sup> _____ (not give up), though.
Instead, she found new ways to fix things when they <sup>8</sup> _____ (not go) well. To cover the roof, Mariana <sup>9</sup> _____ (use) thatch, and not wooden shingles. When she finished, people <sup>10</sup> _____ (not like) the longhouse; they <sup>11</sup> _____ (love) it.
