

Bass Pitch

Match the letter on the cupcake to its correct position on the bass stave. There are two different positions for some letters.

Ten empty bass staves are provided for matching. Each staff has a grey box to its right for labeling. The staves are arranged vertically, and each contains a single note on a different line or space, representing a specific pitch.

