

Phrasal verbs with "off"

removed began the journey exploding

It was like a bomb going off.

We took off our shirts.

When we set off it was difficult to breathe.

Tom (spoke angrily to) the boys for throwing stones at the windows.

The Prime Minister's visit to Australia has been (cancelled) because of the floods at home.

Anne (put in the post) fifty job applications before she got an interview.

The excitement of living in New York soon (disappeared) and then I felt homesick.

The village was (isolated) because of the flooding.

My sister (ended) her engagement to Pete yesterday.

The thief was (not punished) by the magistrate as it was his first offence.

I (broke the connection with) my laptop and went to bed at about midnight.

tell off call off let off cut off show off wear off send off log off break off

